Here's the NYT article--cover story in the magazine on Sunday about one of the things I work on at EPA. I'm on the PFOA Workgroup and whenever the article talks about "Alternatives" that's my area. I thought that the article was pretty good factually although for some of us here it was "old news". I've spoken to some of you about my work at EPA on perfluorinated chemicals and thought you might be interested.

Hi Toni, Could you resend the electronic copy of the article? It doesn't seem to have come through to my inbox under your name. Rose
